

TWO LAWYERS HELD ON BOND

Indictment Charges Effort to Influence Witnesses; Two Others Are Held.

A joint indictment was returned at a special session of the federal grand jury Monday afternoon against James P. McKenna and William E. Lowe, members of the law firm of McKenna & Lowe, Joseph A. Chippa, former hotel proprietor, and Peter McCully, alias "Shorty Morris," charging a conspiracy to corruptly and unlawfully influence the testimony of Ernest W. Miller, a witness for the government, in a case pending in the United States district court against Joseph A. Chippa and William E. Lowe, in which they are charged with violation of the 18-mile zone law.

All the defendants were arrested late Monday evening by officers of the U. S. marshal's office and taken before the United States commissioner, who fixed their bonds at $1000 each, for appearance at the next term of the federal court. Bond was given in each case.

It was said that the case was handled by agents of the department of justice. It was mentioned that a telephone call had been made in connection with the proceeding of the evidence. The indictment contains 15 counts and consists of 14 pages.

NAY CHARGE HIGHER PHONE RATES UNTIL COURT ACTS

Phoenix, Ariz., May 12.—The Mountain States Telephone and Telegraph company may charge its increased rates, against which the Arizona corporation commission has protested, until the supreme court of the United States has decided a similar protest now before it. This was the ruling of Judge Lyman in the superior court.

Judge Lyman granted the corporation commission an order last week, temporarily restraining the company from raising its advanced schedule into effect. Argument Monday was on the state's application to make the injunction permanent. The court ordered that the company might collect its increased charges, provided the difference in the decision in the United States supreme court eventually goes against it. The company undertook not to remove the company of subscribers who refused to pay the increased rates.

Creditors Of Arizona May Have To Wait

Otherwise They Must File Certified Claims During This School Year.

Phoenix, Ariz., May 12.—Owing to the fact that a final court ruling has not yet been received on the interpretation of senate bill 34, prohibiting state departments from excluding their unpaid claims, the creditors of state institutions today issued notice to creditors of the state informing them that unless their certified claims are presented before the close of the present school year, they may have to wait until the next legislative session to file their claims.

The notice reads:

"The state legislature abolished the commission of state institutions to take effect July 1, 1919. It also passed a bill which will not allow purchases contracted during one fiscal year to be paid out of the funds of another year. The auditor's office, according to the law, should close its books at the end of the fiscal year. For these reasons we ask that you immediately present your claims to the auditor of the state or the institutions. If you fail to do so, your claims will be forced to wait until the legislature for their payment."

PROGRESS MADE BY THE Y. M. C. A.

Annual Reports Shows that Much Community Work Has Been Done.

April 29 was the close of the fiscal year of all Y. M. C. A. organizations throughout the world. At that time they take stock of the past year's work. At the annual meeting of the board of directors of the local organization, Monday night at the central building, it was discovered that it had exceeded the limit over all other years of its existence.

Overseas Letter.

The most interesting feature of the meeting was a letter recently received from St. Paul, Minn., from the Y. M. C. A. of that city, which is now in excess work in France. This letter pointed out that the association will of necessity have to move of a community enterprise rather than merely a building and be also brought out the fact that the business men of the community must take a vital interest in the proposition and what is needed is "community-social business."

The local report showed that during the year the work had been made more community wide. N. B. Stamp, the new secretary of the Mexican branch, was introduced.

Col. Stevenson Visitor.

Another visitor to the meeting was Col. H. B. Stevenson, formerly a member of the board of directors who has been in France.

The report of the work of the Y. M. C. A. of the high school work for the local association, H. B. Thompson, high school secretary, was introduced to report to Col. Stevenson.

The report of the secretary, K. J. Brown, showed remarkable progress both in the city work and in the extension work for the summer school and the boys' camp in the Sacramento mountains.

ELECTRIC COMPANY MAY ESTABLISH DEPOT HERE

Mr. Roberts, manager of the railway department of the company, who was in the city Monday and who left for San Francisco office Tuesday morning, was reported to have expressed himself as being favorably inclined toward the establishment here. An industrial brief setting forth the reason of distribution and other matters as affecting the branch was sent to San Francisco by Mr. Roberts for consideration Tuesday afternoon.

The present distribution center of the company for the southwest is at Denver, Colo. The company is a large stockholder in the American Bell Telephone company. Mr. Porter with the San Francisco branch. It was reported, and then made his recommendation to the main office at Chicago.

Semple, city attorney Victor Moore and city attorney William Polkway alleged charges that drivers for various public automobile service companies had been illegally selling liquor. The names of the drivers were not given out after the meeting.

Boothgoing Going On.

Mayor pro tem Semple said after the meeting:

"The session was one of warning. The public service men that were before us were in no manner implicated themselves, but we have had charges made to us and information given that led us to believe that boothgoing is going on among the service drivers in El Paso."

The men were told plainly that in the future if this office receives evidence or information that boothgoing was being carried on, the city will take the only action in its power, the revocation of licenses, and will further prosecute the offenders, who are the proper authority to handle such charges, all evidence and information that we can regarding the cases and they will press the charges."

COMPANY WILL REBUILD MILL

Gaspar Iron Mill Is Taken Charge of by Socorro Corporation.

The historic Gaspar Iron Mill which was burned down on July 25, 1918, at San Elizario, El Paso county, is to be rebuilt by a corporation called the Giron Milling company, capitalized at $15,000. It is to take over the old site and rebuild and will also buy the mill machinery already ordered by Mrs. Thomas G. Giron, the former owner. She will be the principal stockholder and other Gaspar people will also take stock in the corporation which is now being perfected. The mill is to be of the modern roll variety with a capacity of 12 barrels of flour a day and 75 bushels of meal.

Is Historic Mill.

The old mill, a historic affair of the Giron type, was located at Socorro for many years and after the old El Paso mill at El Paso went out of business was the only flour mill in the county for years. It was owned by Jose Armendaris and Gaspar Giron. The latter bought the mill in 1912 and moved it to San Elizario, a wheat and corn growing section far from the city.

There is reason to suspect that the fire was of incendiary origin. A few hours before the fire was discovered two strange men on foot asked to look through the mill and were granted permission.

BREWSTER COUNTY ATTORNEY TELLS OF MINE VALUATION

L. L. Martin, Jr., county attorney of Brewster county, took the witness stand Tuesday forenoon in the Chisum mining company case, an trial in the federal district court, in which the mining company seeks a reduction of its tax assessment, claiming that Brewster county has assessed its property some $500 in excess of what it should be when compared with the property of other mining properties.

Martin gave the basis on which the county figured the valuation of the land rendered by the complainant, as compared with other valuations.

"The Chisum company," he said, "valued the section upon which its mine is located at $10,000. The Mari-was rendered as 18 acres tract at $10,000. I figured that would make a valuation of about $500 per acre. The Chisum tract of 648 acres is consequently valued lower than the Mari-was." On cross examination, Mr. Martin stated that only about 10 acres of the tract was mining property and claimed the remainder was waste land.
